* The Growth option is legalsuper's default option. If you do not make an investment choice above, your account will be invested in the default option until you advise us otherwise.

I understand (and my signature following is evidence of this understanding) that:

- The investment performance of legalsuper's investment choice options is not guaranteed.
- If I do not select an investment choice option upon joining legalsuper, my super will be invested in the Growth option, which is the Fund's default option.
- My investment choice can be changed on any working day, and becomes effective on the following working day after legalsuper receives this correctly completed form.
- legalsuper will confirm my investment choice in writing.

I acknowledge that I should seek independent professional financial advice if I need assistance in making a choice.

When an investment switch will occur

In the event that you elect to switch investment choices, your investment switch will occur using the next available unit price.

All investment switches are managed using a weekly batch period, which is from Monday 12.01am to Sunday 11.59pm for online transactions, and Monday 12.01am to Friday 1.00pm for instructions received by post or fax. Instructions received by post or fax after 1.00pm on Friday will be treated as having been received on the next Monday, and will be processed in the following week's batch period.

Member investment choice switches received in this period will be applied to member accounts on the following Thursday (or if that is not a trading day, the next trading day) using the next unit price. Unit prices are updated each Wednesday (or if that is not a trading day, the next trading day).

6. Nomination of beneficiaries

You may elect to make either a Binding or Non-binding nomination of beneficiaries to whom your accrued legalsuper entitlements will be paid in the event of your death.

A Non-binding nomination of preferred dependants is not binding on the Trustee, but will assist the Trustee in exercising its discretion. The Trustee will determine what proportion of your entitlements goes to one or more of your dependants or your legal representative on your death. Unless the Trustee decides to pay the benefits to your estate, your entitlements will not form part of your estate and will therefore not be subject to the terms of your will.

A Binding nomination of dependant(s) or legal personal representative(s) will bind the Trustee to pay your entitlements on your death exactly as you specify. Your nomination will only be binding if it is made in accordance with the relevant requirements. One of these requirements is that you sign the declaration in Section 8 overleaf and have two persons over 18 years of age witness the declaration in your presence.

'Dependant' is defined as:

- (a) the spouse of the person, any child of the person and any person with whom the person has an interdependency relationship at the relevant time (being in the case of a deceased person the date of their death); and
- (b) any other person who in the opinion of the Trustee is at the relevant time (being in the case of a deceased person the date of their death) wholly or partially dependent on the person.

Interdependency

Two persons have a interdependency relationship if:

- (a) they have a close personal relationship; and
- (b) they live together; and
- (c) one or each of them provides the other with financial support; and
- (d) one or each of them provides the other with domestic support and personal care.

Two people have an interdependency if they have a close personal relationship but do not satisfy the other requirements of an interdependency relationship because either or both of them suffer from physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability.

Nominated dependant(s) or legal representative(s)

The following are the dependant(s) or legal representative(s) whom I want to receive my super in the event of my death. (If you are nominating your legal personal representative, you need only write 'legal personal representative', and do not need to provide the other details requested below.)

Option 1 - Lump sum to be paid to your nominated beneficiaries.

Please provide names of your preferred beneficiary/ies in the event of your death. You can photocopy this page of the form if you have more than four beneficiary nominations. (Benefit allocations must add up to 100%.)
